

Edinburgh Rudolf Steiner School

In common with nearly all of the 900 Steiner Schools worldwide the Edinburgh Rudolf Steiner School is a non hierarchical organisation.

The Trustees have the legal, financial and employment responsibility of the School. To stand as a Trustee any member of the Trust can be nominated and elected at the Trust AGM. The Trust is open to anyone who has the welfare of the School at heart on payment of a small fee.

Trustees: 2004/05: Colin Redpath, Chairman; Sarah Cunningham Burley; Patrick MacLean; Gillian Watt; Astrid MacLean; Harald Vox and Francine Oddoye

The College of Teachers

The Educational Policy making body of the School is the College of Teachers. The College is responsible for admissions; maintaining standards in the curriculum, and all other areas relating to learning and teaching. There are a number of sub groups of the College with responsibility for such things as House and Grounds, Staff Development, Festivals, Development, etc..

Day to day running of the School is delegated to the Management Group.

The College of Teachers, is made up of teachers who have been at the school for a number of years and have shown their commitment and dedication to the philosophical principles of the School.

The Management Group

The day to day running of the School is handled by the Management Group. The Management Group is made up of four members of The College of Teachers and is chaired by The Chairman of the College. The Management Group, on behalf of College, deal with all matters pertaining to learning and teaching. Management members have different portfolio responsibilities.

If you have a concern, a problem or just want to have some information please do not hesitate to contact a Management member.

Your first port of call, however, should be the Kindergarten or Class Teacher; Guardian or Subject Teacher.
